

THE AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS CITATION FOR LIFE FELLOWSHIP – BRYAN MILLER

Bryan Miller has made a notable contribution to the practice of architecture over a thirty year period. He has practised architecture both as a director in a national firm responsible for major commissions and latterly in his own project management and architectural firm. He has served with distinction on both Victorian Chapter and National Council of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects. He has served on, and continues to serve on, many Institute Committees. He has also served the profession on statutory authorities, the Architects Registration Board of Victoria and as an adviser to Local Government. In the wider construction industry, Bryan is a respected expert witness, appearing before Tribunals and other jurisdictions and at mediations, specialising in a range of issues relating to construction and architectural practice. He has been a member of Standards Australia committees and lectured at both The University of Melbourne and the RMIT University schools of architecture. He has published widely on administrative matters.
