

THE ROYAL AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

CITATION FOR LIFE FELLOWSHIP – NEIL EVANS

Neil Evans has served the practice of architecture by performing in an exemplary professional role for the duration of his time in practice.

He has practiced largely in the residential, commercial and institutional fields providing a broad range of architectural services.

He has served (and still serves) on many Royal Australian Institute of Architects committees and associated professional bodies.

Neil has also served the community on committees and Councils and in advisory roles for the betterment of the Built Environment.

He, with his practice partner, has won a number of architectural awards and commendations.
